What's new in 14-15 Verification

Verification Tracking Groups

- V1- Standard Verification
- V2- No longer used (was previously SNAP Verification)
- V3- Child Support Paid Verification
- V4- Custom Verification Group
- V5- Aggregate Verification Group
- V6- Household Resources Verification Group

Required Verification Items

- See DCL GEN-13-16 and Federal Register Vol. 78, No. 114 posted June 13, 2013
- Items remain the same as 13-14 with the exception of Other Untaxed Income.
 - Those in group Verification group V6 will be required to verify all untaxed information on the FAFSA for parent/student.
 - If income appears insufficient to support the members of the household, then further documentation demonstrating how the family was supported will be required.

Acceptable Documentation

- Nontax filers- Must request a "Verification of Nonfiling" from the IRS if filing status is questioned.
 - These are not issued until after June 15, 2014
- Child Support Paid- In addition on documentation already, listed as acceptable, institutions can now accept records of electronic payments as proof of CS paid.
- HS Completion Status- If HS completion has been verified for purposes other than Title 1V verification, this can be relied upon.

Acceptable Documentation

- HS Completed Abroad- Can Verify using a "secondary school leaving certificate" from the appropriate central government agency.
- Identity/Statement of Education Purpose- After examining original document, you can convert to an electronic document.

FAA Access Updates

- New feature added to report the out come of Identity and High School Diploma/GED verification.

IRS Display Flags

- Identifies why a student/parent was not eligible to use IRS DRT
- Two sets of alpha-character codes will be created, one for students and one for parents.

Changes to Parent Info

- Students will be required to supply both legal/adoptive parent's information if the parents live together regardless of marital status.
 - This include legal/adoptive parents who are of the same sex and live together.
- FAFSA will have new responses to Parents' Marital Status
 - Never married
 - Unmarried and both parents living together
 - Married or remarried
 - Divorced or separated
 - Widowed

Changes to Parent Info

- Most recent guidance from ED (GEN-13-12 from April 29th, 2013) states that same sex couples will have to indicated "Unmarried and both parents living together".
- Recent changes to IRS rules dictate that same sex couples who are legally married must use the Married Filing Jointly or Married Filing Separately status for Federal Tax Purposes.
 - Currently waiting on guidance pertaining to this change and how it will effect FAFSA completion and verification.
